

This volume is dedicated to socio-economic, infrastructural as well as political issues. The presented analyses provide qualitatively new material. It is also worth noting that the texts come from several research centers from all four V4 countries (and from the Netherlands), being the result of research conducted there.